Report

Prof. Anil Shukla, Vice Chancellor of M.J.P.R.U. Bareilly participated actively by sharing Gandhi's view on education. He called for the meeting with HODs that was held for an hour to discuss about the Nai Talim course.

The main objective of the roundtable meeting was to discuss the need and scope for introduction of new courses in rural community engagement particularly, in the areas of rural management/rural communication/ rural social work including rural studies and a common course for students of all streams along with NSS Coordinators and program officers.
